FIFTH SUNDAY OF

Lent

March
17th
2024

I will place my law within them
and write it upon their hearts;
I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
Jeremiah 31:33

THE NEW COVENANT

Today's first reading is an enormously important passage, not only in the history of the Jewish people, but also for us as disciples of Jesus, who see in it a foreshadowing of the Christian dispensation. The prophet announces that God has chosen to forgive the people, and that as a sign of divine forgiveness a new covenant will be established. Contrasting the new covenant with the one made with Moses on Mount Sinai, Jeremiah says that the new covenant will be written on the people's hearts rather than on tablets of stone. No longer will the community's tradition be the sole bearer of the covenant; henceforth, God will speak directly and personally to each individual, forgiving sin and calling for a return to God in faithfulness. No longer will mere outward compliance with the dictates of the Law suffice; henceforth, God asks for an obedience that springs from the depths of one's heart. Precisely that kind of obedience is highlighted in today's second reading, where the author of the Letter to the Hebrews describes Jesus as the mediator of the new covenant whose obedience has made him the source of salvation for all who, in turn, obey him.

Today's Readings

I will make a new covenant; I will write my law upon their hearts
(Jeremiah 31:31-34) or Ezekiel 37:12-14.

Create a clean heart in me, O God (Psalm 51) or Psalm 130.
Christ learned obedience and became the source of eternal salvation
(Hebrews 5:7-9) or Romans 8:8-11.

If a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it produces much fruit
(John 12:20-33) or John 11:1-45 [3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45].

Give me justice, O God, and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless.
From the deceitful and cunning rescue me, for you, O God, are my strength. Ps 43(42):1-2

"If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." Jn 8:31-32

The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are attentive to their cry. Psalm 34:15

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare.
Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor. Psalm 25(24):15-16

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and Courageous.
Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go." Jos 1:9

Fish Fry Fridays

Join us from 4:00 P.M.- 6:00 P.M. on Friday in the parish center,

The Armor of God

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Therefore, put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people. Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should. Ephesians 6:10-20.

Act of Contrition

My God, I am heartily sorry for having offended you. I detest all my sins, because of your just punishment, but most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to sin no more and to avoid the near occasions of sin. Amen.
