The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls)

Lectionary: 668

The following are a selection of the readings that may be chosen for this day.

Reading I

Wisdom 3:1-9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; they shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord shall be their King forever. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

Reading II

Romans 5:5-11

Brothers and sisters:

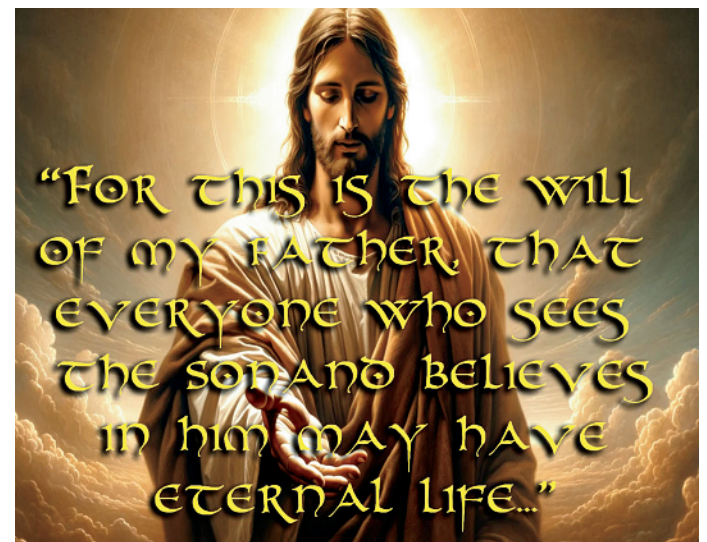

Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good Person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Gospel

John 6:37-40

Jesus said to the crowds:

“Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day.”

We need volunteers
for all of our events

“Love cannot remain by itself - it has no meaning. Love has to be put into action and that action is service.”

-Mother Theresa

Call the parish office
to register to volunteer.

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart, in choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

ParishSOFT Giving Is Live Faith Direct → ParishSOFT Giving

Great news—All Faith Direct accounts have now been upgraded to Parish- SOFT Giving!

- No immediate action is required: recurring gifts and payment information were securely transferred.
- If you use the small Offertory cards, you may continue using the Faith Direct cards until we receive information about new ParishSOFT cards.
- You can log in with your Faith Direct credentials. If needed, use the Forgot Password option to reset your access.

FROM NOVEMBER 2-8, 2025 , OUR NATION WILL OBSERVE
NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

Dear Rev. Leonard, Father Valentine and Msgr. Tom,

Deacons Andy, George, Dony and Drew

St. Matthew Parishioners wish to thank you for answering God's call. Your dedication has inspired many in our parish and the whole world. Remain strong in your faith and dedicated to your vocation to serve

VOCATIONS
begin @home

We invite all young men and women to open their hearts to God's call and prayerfully discern a vocation to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, or religious life.

Each of these vocations is a unique gift of the Holy Spirit — a generous response to God's invitation to serve His people. Within the communion of the Church, we encounter the Word, the sacraments, and the inspiring witness of the saints, who guide and strengthen us along this sacred journey.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

St. Matthew Parish is exploring the creation of a Young Adult Ministry—a space for those in their 20s and 30s to connect, share faith, and grow together. Whether you're new to the parish, recently graduated, or starting your career or family life, this ministry aims to help you find belonging and purpose in the Church.
