Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 144

Reading I

2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman went down and plunged into the Jordan seven times at the word of Elisha, the man of God. His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy.

Naaman returned with his whole retinue to the man of God. On his arrival he stood before Elisha and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel. Please accept a gift from your servant."

Elisha replied, "As the LORD lives whom I serve, I will not take it;" and despite Naaman's urging, he still refused. Naaman said: "If you will not accept, please let me, your servant, have two mule-loads of earth, for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the LORD."

Reading II

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Beloved: Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David: such is my gospel, for which I am suffering, even to the point of chains, like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory.

This saying is trustworthy: If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him. But if we deny him he will deny us. If we are unfaithful he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself.

Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

As Jesus made his way to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!"

And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him.

He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

We need volunteers for all of our events

Love cannot remain by itself - it has no meaning. Love has to be put into action and that action is service. Mother Theresa

Call the parish office to register to volunteer.

Come and visit us, we are located in the parish center and we are open after all masses.

La tienda de artículos religiosos está abierta, después de todas las misas. Vengan a visitarnos.

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart, in choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

The St. Matthew Christmas Festival will be held on Saturday, December 13th from 9:00-2:00 P.M.

It takes many volunteers to help put on this wonderful Christmas event.

If you would like to volunteer, please email volunteersatstmatthew@gmail.com with your name, phone# and T-shirt size. We will also be in the parish center after all masses the weekend of 10/25 & 10/26. An email will be sent to all volunteers in early November with a link to the volunteer positions and shifts for you to pick based upon your schedule. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of your time.

HANDEL'S MESSIAH

Tickets are now available for the live performance of choral music from Handel's beloved Messiah at 7 PM on Friday, December 19, 2025 at St. Matthew Catholic Church. Tickets are $25.00.

Tickets will be on sale after all masses starting September 27th and can also be purchased through the parish office during regular business hours.

The Masterworks Chorus of the Palm Beaches will be performing, accompanied by full orchestra and organ. Buy your ticket early for yourself, family, friends and co-workers. Volunteer to sell tickets and put up posters advertising the concert. This is the first time Handel's Messiah is being performed in the area.

YOU WILL NOT WANT TO MISS IT!

We gather to honor Deacon Frank for his faithful service and to express our gratitude for the many gifts he has brought to our parish. The parish received an email from Deacon Frank informing us of his intention to serve at a different parish closer to his home. We contacted the Diocese, and with the bishop's permission, it was granted. Deacon Frank Iovine has served in our parish for the last four years in various capacities, including leading OCIA, Bible Studies, and as a homilist. We will miss him, and on behalf of Fr. Valentine, Monsignor Tom, Deacon George, Deacon Andy, Deacon Dony, and our parish staff, we wish him God's blessings as he begins the next chapter of his ministry.

Caminando con la Palabra

Caminando con la Palabra

12 de octubre de 2025 - XXVIII Domingo ordinario

(2 Reyes 5, 14-17; Salmo 97, 1. 2-3ab. 3cd-4; 2 Timoteo 2, 8-13; Lucas 17, 11-19)

(Lo que sigue es una adaptación de la homilía de Papa Francisco del 13 de octubre de 2019)

«Tu fe te ha salvado» (Lc 17,19). Es el punto de llegada del evangelio de hoy, que nos muestra el camino de la fe. En este itinerario de fe vemos tres etapas, señaladas por los leprosos curados, que invocan, caminan y agradecen.

En primer lugar, invocar. Los leprosos se encontraban en una condición terrible. Dice el evangelio que ellos invocan a Jesús «a gritos». No se dejan paralizar por las exclusiones de los hombres y gritan a Dios, que no excluye a nadie. Es así como se acortan las distancias, como se vence la soledad: no encerrándose en sí mismos y en las propias aflicciones, no pensando en los juicios de los otros, sino invocando al Señor, porque el Señor escucha el grito del que está solo. La fe crece así, con la invocación confiada, presentando a Jesús lo que somos, con el corazón abierto, sin esconder nuestras miserias. Invoquemos con confianza cada día el nombre de Jesús: Dios salva. La oración es la puerta de la fe, la oración es la medicina del corazón.

La segunda palabra es caminar. Impacta el hecho de que los leprosos no se curan cuando están delante de Jesús, sino después, al caminar. Somos purificados en el camino de la vida. La fe requiere un camino, una salida, hace milagros si salimos de nuestras certezas acomodadas, si dejamos nuestros puertos seguros, nuestros nidos confortables. La fe aumenta con el don y crece con el riesgo. avanzamos en la fe con el amor humilde y concreto, con la paciencia cotidiana, invocando a Jesús y siguiendo hacia adelante. Hay otro aspecto interesante en el camino de los leprosos: avanzan juntos. Es verdad, es nuestra tarea —de nosotros que estamos aquí para “celebrar la Eucaristía”, es decir, para agradecer—, es nuestra tarea hacernos cargo del que ha dejado de caminar, de quien ha perdido el rumbo: todos nosotros somos protectores de nuestros hermanos alejados.

Agradecer: es la última etapa. Sólo al que agradece Jesús le dice: «Tu fe te ha salvado». No sólo está sano, sino también salvado. Esto nos dice que la meta no es la salud, no es el estar bien, sino el encuentro con Jesús. Sólo Él libra del mal y sana el corazón, sólo el encuentro con Él salva, hace la vida plena y hermosa. Cuando encontramos a Jesús, el “gracias” nace espontáneo, porque se descubre lo más importante de la vida, que no es recibir una gracia o resolver un problema, sino abrazar al Señor de la vida. Y esto es lo más importante de la vida: abrazar al Señor de la vida. Cuando agradecemos, el Padre se conmueve y derrama sobre nosotros el Espíritu Santo.
