READINGS - FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

READING 1 ISAIAH 7:10-14

Lectionary: 10

The LORD spoke to Ahaz, saying:
Ask for a sign from the LORD, your God;
let it be deep as the netherworld, or high as the sky!
But Ahaz answered,
"I will not ask! I will not tempt the LORD!"
Then Isaiah said:
Listen, O house of David!
Is it not enough for you to weary people, must you also weary my God? Therefore the Lord himself will give you this sign:
the virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel.

READING 2 ROMANS 1:1-7

Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God,
which he promised previously through his prophets
in the holy Scriptures, the gospel about his Son, descended from David
according to the flesh,
but established as Son of God in power
according to the Spirit of holiness through resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord. Through him we have received the grace of apostleship,
to bring about the obedience of faith,
for the sake of his name, among all the Gentiles,
among whom are you also, who are called to belong to Jesus Christ; to all the beloved of God in Rome, called to be holy.
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel MATTHEW 1:18-24

This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to JOSEPH, BUT before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous MAN, YET unwilling to expose her to SHAME, DECIDED to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and SAID, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him JESUS, BECAUSE he will save his people from their sins." All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him EMMANUEL, WHICH means "God is with us."

When Joseph AWOKE, HE did as the angel of the Lord had commanded HIM AND took his wife into his home.

The Holy Scriptures present Christmas not as a sentimental holiday but as the pivotal mystery of the Incarnation, where eternal God enters time to redeem creation. Rooted in Matthew and Luke, it fulfills prophecies and calls us to adore the newborn King in humility and faith. As the angels proclaimed, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will" (Luke 2:14), may this celebration draw you deeper into the scriptural truth of Emmanuel—God with us.

O my God, I am sorry and repent with all my heart for all the wrong I have done and for the good I have failed to do, because by sinning I have offended you, who are all good and worthy to be loved above all things. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid the occasions of sin. Through the merits of the Passion of our Savior Jesus Christ, Lord, have mercy.

Important Mass Schedule Update

Effective January 1, 2026, the Saturday 5:30 PM Mass will be permanently discontinued due to consistently low attendance. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause and appreciate your understanding as we continue to evaluate and adjust our parish schedule to best serve the needs of our community.

Thank you for your continued faith and support.

Merry Christmas

Dear Parishioners, as we gather in this holy season, I am filled with joy at the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ, the Light of the World. May the peace, hope, and love of Christmas fill your hearts, your homes, and our entire community. Let us rejoice in the Incarnation and renew our commitment to living as disciples of the Lord.

Wishing you and your loved ones a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year!

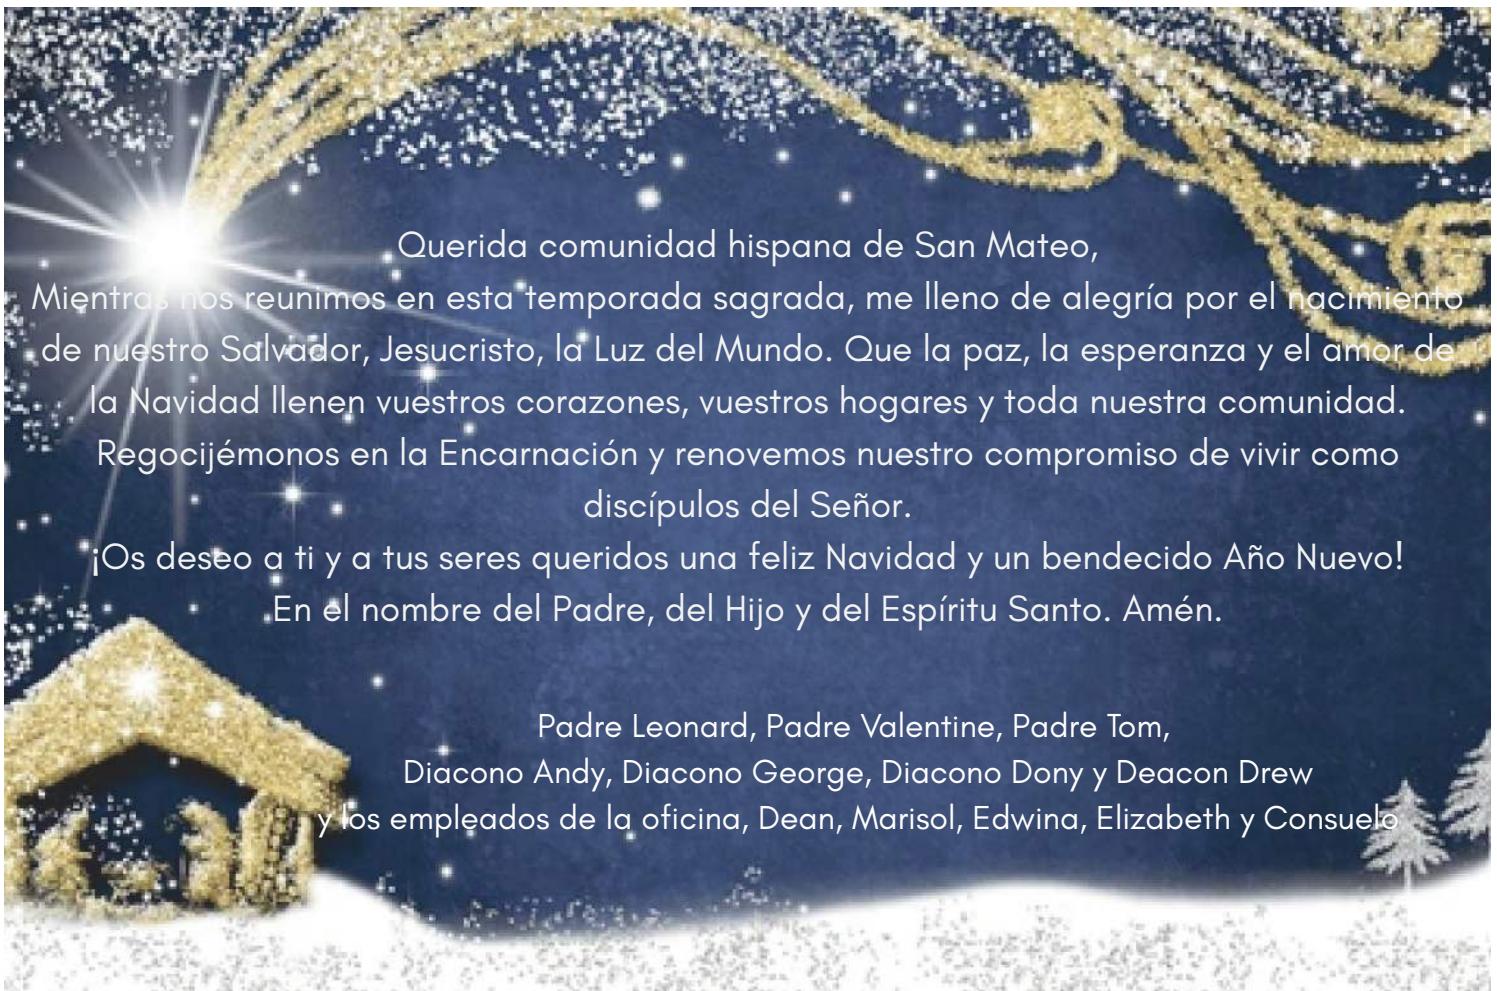

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Querida comunidad hispana de San Mateo,

Mientras nos reunimos en esta temporada sagrada, me lleno de alegría por el nacimiento de nuestro Salvador, Jesucristo, la Luz del Mundo. Que la paz, la esperanza y el amor de la Navidad llenen vuestrros corazones, vuestros hogares y toda nuestra comunidad.

Regocijémonos en la Encarnación y renovemos nuestro compromiso de vivir como discípulos del Señor.

¡Os deseo a ti y a tus seres queridos una feliz Navidad y un bendecido Año Nuevo!

En el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Amén.

Padre Leonard, Padre Valentine, Padre Tom,

Diacono Andy, Diacono George, Diacono Dony y Deacon Drew

y los empleados de la oficina, Dean, Marisol, Edwina, Elizabeth y Consuelo

GRACIAS!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas de la comunidad hispana,

En este momento de reflexión y gratitud, me dirijo a ustedes para expresar un profundo agradecimiento a todos los voluntarios de nuestra comunidad hispana. Durante todo el año, con dedicación incansable y un corazón generoso, han tejido lazos de solidaridad, han acompañado a los más necesitados y han enriquecido nuestra parroquia y vecindario con su servicio desinteresado. Su labor —ya sea en las actividades pastorales, en las celebraciones litúrgicas, en el apoyo a las familias inmigrantes o en las iniciativas de caridad— refleja el espíritu evangélico de amar al prójimo como a uno mismo, tal como nos enseña el Señor en el Evangelio. Piensen en las manos que han extendido para ayudar en las posadas navideñas, en las visitas a los enfermos, en las clases de catequesis para adultos o en los eventos que fomentan la unidad cultural y espiritual. Cada esfuerzo suyo no solo construye nuestra comunidad, sino que también es un testimonio vivo de la fe católica que nos une como pueblo de Dios. En un mundo que a menudo valora lo individual por encima de lo colectivo, ustedes nos recuerdan que el verdadero servicio nace del amor y se ofrece sin esperar recompensa. Que el Señor, fuente de toda gracia, los bendiga abundantemente por su compromiso. Que María, nuestra Madre Guadalupe, interceda por cada uno de ustedes, protegiendo su labor y multiplicando los frutos de su entrega. Sigamos caminando juntos, inspirados por el ejemplo de Cristo, el Siervo sufriente.

Con gratitud y unión de oración,
Padre Leonard y Padre Valentine

La Navidad es una fiesta que resalta especialmente la unión familiar, celebrada por los cristianos. En este tiempo litúrgico, la Iglesia invita a las familias a reunirse en oración, compartir y fortalecer los lazos de amor, fidelidad y solidaridad, recordando que Dios se hace presente en el Niño Jesús para unir a la humanidad como una gran familia.¹ Esta unión no solo se vive en el ámbito doméstico, sino que se extiende a la comunidad eclesial y al mundo entero, promoviendo la reconciliación y la fraternidad universal. a la La Sagrada Familia como Modelo de Unión

El Papa Juan Pablo II enfatizaba que la Navidad ilumina la vocación de la familia como comunidad de amor basada en la verdad, la fidelidad indisoluble entre esposos y la apertura a la vida. La Sagrada Familia, guiada por la acción sorprendente de Dios, es el primer modelo para las familias iluminadas por Cristo, donde cada miembro contribuye con sus dones al crecimiento común sin perder su identidad.¹ En este sentido, la unión familiar en Navidad se manifiesta en la comunión recíproca, el intercambio de regalos y la solidaridad, valores que contrarrestan las ideologías individualistas y materialistas que amenazan a las familias contemporáneas.

Sagrada Familia de Nazaret como modelo para todas las familias familias contemporáneas.

De manera similar, el Papa Francisco ha recordado que la experiencia de las familias enseña la fraternidad: aunque los hermanos sean diferentes y no siempre estén de acuerdo, existe un vínculo inquebrantable, fortalecido por el amor de los padres. En el contexto navideño, Dios actúa como el "padre" de la gran familia humana, invitando a redescubrir los lazos que unen a individuos y pueblos. Esta perspectiva se extiende a la Iglesia, donde la unidad eclesial, como la de la comunidad católica en contextos de división, se fortalece mediante la oración y la reconciliación, inspirada en el Niño Dios.

Msgr. Tom -Advent

Friends, each year as Christmas approaches, the world loudly announces its arrival. The monotony of music blasting on radio, tv, in the malls; the millions of lights on houses; stores filled with shoppers, and calendars filled with gatherings can be overwhelming. Yet the Church, in her wisdom, invites us at this time to pause and to look deeper—because Christmas is not merely a season on the calendar, but a mystery of faith. While the world often celebrates Christmas on the surface: warmth without wonder, sentiment without sacrifice, joy without truth, the Church proclaims something far greater: the Incarnation—that the eternal Son of God took flesh in the womb of the Virgin Mary and entered our human history.

When we profess in the Creed, “For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven... and became man,” at Christmas, we do not simply remember a birth by bowing our head, but we genuflect, bending our knee (if we can!), adoring the mystery that God humbles Himself, becoming small so that we might be lifted up.

The secular celebration of Christmas centers on what we can see and touch—decorations, gifts, and festivities. Such things may not be wrong in themselves, but they are so incomplete. When they replace the heart of Christmas, they leave us very unsatisfied. It ends so abruptly, on the 26th of December, or certainly by January 1st. The spiritual meaning of Christmas, however, invites us to contemplation, humility, and gratitude for a long time to come. The holy season ends in January (11, in 2026), with the celebration of the Baptism of Christ, giving us time to reflect more deeply on the mysteries of the Incarnation and the Nativity.

For instance, we can consider how Christ comes into the world – not in a palace, but in a stable. He wasn’t welcomed by the powerful, but by shepherds—men of little status. And until the angels loudly proclaimed Christ’s birth to them, God revealed Himself not through spectacle, but through silence and simplicity. The manger itself became an altar, where The God of heaven comes and touches earth. The child lying in that manger is not merely an infant to be admired; He is the Savior who comes because the world is wounded by sin; and Christmas only makes sense when we acknowledge our need for redemption. So, without the Cross, the manger loses its meaning.

This is why the Church calls us not just to celebrate, but first to prepare. Advent teaches us how to wait, how to watch, how to make room. Christmas asks us a question that is both personal and profound: Is there room for Christ in our hearts?

In the secular understanding of Christmas, we’re encouraged to consume. In the real, spiritual meaning of Christmas, we are invited to receive—to receive Christ in faith, in prayer, and most especially in the Holy Eucharist. The world often promises happiness through abundance, yet leaves many people empty once the celebrations end. Christ offers something deeper: peace—not the absence of suffering, but the real presence of a God-with-us. The same Lord who lay in the manger comes to us humbly under the lowly appearance of bread and wine. If we recognize Him there, Christmas becomes not just a day, but a way of life. So, it’s fitting to ask ourselves: Which Christmas are we living?

A Christmas of noise—or a Christmas of reverence? A Christmas of possessions—or a Christmas of presence? A Christmas that passes—or a Christmas that transforms?

As we approach the manger scene at Christmas, let’s come with humility, with wonder, and with faith. The gold and frankincense we’ll offer are our hearts—open, repentant, and ready. So, let Mary, who first received Christ into the world, teach us how to humbly receive Him into our lives; and may this Christmas renew in us the joy of salvation and the hope that God truly dwells among us.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will!
