TWENTY-SEVEN SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading 1

Isaiah 5:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend,
my friend's song concerning his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside; he spaded it, cleared it of stones, and planted the choicest vines;
within it he built a watchtower,
and hewed out a wine press.
Then he looked for the crop of grapes,
but what it yielded was wild grapes.
Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard:
What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done? Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes, did it bring forth wild grapes? Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard: take away its hedge,
give it to grazing, break through its wall, let it be trampled! Yes, I will make it a ruin:
it shall not be pruned or hoed,
but overgrown with thorns and briars;
I will command the clouds not to send rain upon it. The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice,
but hark, the outcry!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PSALM 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20

R. (Is 5:7a) The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Reading 2

Philippians 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters:
Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.
Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding
will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters,
whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence
and if there is anything worthy of praise,
think about these things.
Keep on doing what you have learned and
received and heard and seen in me.
Then the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel

Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people:
"Hear another parable.
There was a landowner who planted a vineyard,
put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built
a tower.
Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey.
When vintage time drew near,
he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned.
Again he sent other servants, more numerous than
the first ones, but they treated them in the same way.
Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking,
'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw
the son, they said to one another,
'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this
been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes?
Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

ACT OF CONTRITION

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart, in choosing to do wrong and failing to do good. I have sinned against you, whom I should love above all things, I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. in His name, my God, have mercy.

SEPI – Strengthening Hispanic Ministry in Our Catholic Church

The Southeast Pastoral Institute (SEPI) serves the Catholic Church by promoting the full participation and integration of Hispanic and Latino Catholics in the life and mission of the Church and society.

This year, Bishop Manuel Rodríguez joined representatives from the Office of Hispanic Ministry of the Diocese of Palm Beach at the SEPI gathering. The conference focused on important areas of pastoral ministry, including support for migrants, catechesis and evangelization for families, youth and young adults, leadership formation, and synodality.

We are especially grateful that Marisol Rodríguez from St. Matthew Catholic Church was among those who participated in this important gathering. She returned with valuable information, resources, and new ideas that can help strengthen and support our community here at St. Matthew.

El sábado 26 de septiembre de 2026, más de 150 mujeres de nuestra comunidad hispana se reunieron para vivir un hermoso retiro de oración, fraternidad y renovación espiritual. Con el corazón abierto a la gracia de Dios, se congregaron como hermanas en Cristo con un mismo propósito: acercarse más a Jesús y permitirle transformar sus corazones. Durante el día hubo alegría, cantos, risas, momentos de reflexión y la oportunidad de compartir alrededor de la mesa. Las participantes se escucharon, se animaron y se consolaron unas a otras, compartiendo sus experiencias y descubriendo nuevas maneras de poner a Cristo en el centro de sus vidas. Fue un hermoso recordatorio de que, cuando permitimos que Jesús habite verdaderamente en nuestro corazón, Él nos fortalece para ser mejores esposas, madres, hijas, hermanas, amigas y miembros fieles de su Iglesia.

El amor de Dios también se hizo visible de manera especial a través de quienes sirvieron. El equipo del retiro ofreció generosamente su tiempo, sus talentos y, sobre todo, su corazón, procurando que cada participante se sintiera acogida y amada como una verdadera hermana en Cristo.

Nuestro agradecimiento también se extiende a los hombres de nuestra comunidad hispana, quienes dedicaron muchas horas a servir a las mujeres durante este retiro. Su presencia, entrega y servicio desinteresado fueron un hermoso testimonio de caridad cristiana: servir sin buscar reconocimiento, simplemente por amor a Dios y al prójimo.

Este retiro fue mucho más que un encuentro; fue una expresión visible de una Iglesia viva: una comunidad que ora unida, sirve unida, se sostiene mutuamente y crece unida en Cristo. Jesús nos confía a todos una misión: «Vayan, pues, y hagan discípulos a todas las naciones» (Mateo 28,19). Esa misión comienza en nuestro propio corazón y continúa en nuestros hogares, nuestras familias, nuestras amistades, nuestra parroquia y nuestra comunidad.

Que las gracias recibidas durante este retiro continúen dando abundantes frutos y que cada mujer que participó lleve consigo la luz, la alegría y el amor de Cristo, compartiéndolos con todos aquellos que encuentre en su camino.

Cuando Cristo transforma nuestro corazón, también transforma, a través de nosotros, la vida de quienes nos rodean.

María Santísima nos acompañe siempre en nuestra misión de llevar a Cristo a los demás!
