Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 75

Reading 1

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, with the train of his garment filling the temple. Seraphim were stationed above.

They cried one to the other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!"

At the sound of that cry, the frame of the door shook and the house was filled with smoke.

Then I said, "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

Then one of the seraphim flew to me, holding an ember that he had taken with tongs from the altar. He touched my mouth with it, and said, "See, now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" "Here I am," I said; "send me!"

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

I am reminding you, brothers and sisters, of the gospel I preached to you, which you indeed received and in which you also stand.

Through it you are also being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures; that he was buried; that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures; that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. After that, Christ appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep.

After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one born abnormally, he appeared to me. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God that is with me. Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

Gospel

Luke 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore.

Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets."

When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking.

When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

Here we have four spots available as of January 27, 2025. The first four people to pay their deposit and fill out the application form and send in their copy of their passport will be the last people registered for Jubilee 2025. The Inspirational Tours is the agency in charge of the entire list and they will inform us when they have all the spaces covered.

I would like to invite you to join me, Deacon Frank, in a fascinating study of Angels as they appear in the Bible. These celestial beings play a significant role in God's plan and in the lives of Believers throughout scripture. From their appearances in the old testament to their revelations in the new testament, Angels bring messages of hope, guidance, and divine intervention, join me in the deep dive into God's word for a One-Day session on Wednesday, February 19th, at 7P.M. in the Parish Center or on Zoom with the following link:

RETIRO DE SANACIÓN DEL VIÑERO DE RAQUEL

ESPERANZA DESPUÉS DEL ABORTO y el aborto espontáneo: Experimente el amor sanador de Jesucristo durante un retiro de sanación en el Viñero de Raquel. Este retiro ofrece una oportunidad para entrar profundamente en el proceso de duelo e identificar las formas en que tu aborto o aborto espontáneo puede haberte afectado a ti o a un ser querido. Las discusiones, los ejercicios espirituales, la oración y la reflexión combinadas con el Sacramento de la Reconciliación, un servicio conmemorativo en honor a su hijo y una hermosa misa ayudarán a sanar las heridas de su pasado. La participación es estrictamente confidencial y ofrece una oportunidad única para experimentar el amor, el perdón y la tierna compasión de Dios. Tanto hombres como mujeres están invitados a experimentar esta sanación para su alma. El próximo retiro se llevará a cabo desde el viernes 25 de abril al 27 de abril 2025. Se requiere inscripción previa.

Para inscribirse o para obtener más información, llame a Emily Babylonía –Gonzalez , coordinadora del Viñero de Raquel , al 561-254-1728 o a Marisol Rodriguez de San Mateo al 561-523-0370. Quinto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

(Isaías 6, 1-2a. 3-8; Salmo 137, 1-2a. 2bc-3. 4-5. 7c-8; 1 Corintios 15, 1-11; Lucas 5, 1-11)

A través de las Sagradas Escrituras, hay una temática recurrente de llamado, elección y misión. En los albores de la historia, Adán y Eva son creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios para ser los mayordomos de toda la Creación. Israel es convocado a ser el pueblo elegido de Yahvé para llevar Su luz a las naciones. Por último, en la plenitud de los tiempos, Cristo establece a Su Iglesia y la comisiona para difundir Su Buena Nueva hasta los confines de la Tierra. Las lecturas de este domingo, en cierto modo, tratan sobre esa misma idea, invitándonos a una profunda reflexión sobre lo que esta identidad vocacional implica para nuestra vida espiritual.

En el pasaje del Libro de Isaías, dentro del contexto de una visión celestial del SEÑOR sentado en Su trono, el profeta reconoce su impureza ante la presencia del Rey.

Entonces, un serafín toca los labios de Isaías con un carbón encendido, acción que elimina su culpa y le perdona su pecado. Al ser purificado, él queda capacitado para responder a Dios y convertirse en Su emisario. San Pablo, en el fragmento de su Primera Carta a los Corintios, declara que es “el último de los apóstoles, indigno de ser llamado apóstol”, pero reconoce que la Gracia lo ha transformado para llevar a cabo la obra de predicar la Buena Nueva. Finalmente, el relato del Evangelio según San Lucas presenta una pesca milagrosa que cambia la vida de Simón y sus compañeros pescadores. Sobrecogido, Pedro cae de rodillas ante Jesús y confiesa su propia iniquidad. Sin embargo, Cristo, por su parte, responde llenando a los hombres de valor, llamándolos a emprender la aventura de seguirle.

Estas narraciones describen nuestras propias experiencias como discípulos de Jesús. A menudo podemos considerarnos inadecuados para proclamar el Evangelio. Las razones para esta percepción pueden ser muchas, incluso la constante realidad del pecado, pero la invitación, el llamado del SEÑOR, está siempre presente. Mediante los sacramentos, y de manera especial en la Eucaristía, somos convocados, elegidos, comisionados y fortalecidos con el poder del Cielo para asumir la vocación de ser Sus testigos.

Lenten Prayer for Spiritual Renewal

God, heavenly Father, look upon me and hear my prayer during this holy Season of Lent. By the good works You inspire, help me to discipline my body and to be renewed in spirit. Without You I can do nothing. By Your Spirit help me to know what is right and to be eager in doing Your will. Teach me to find new life through penance. Keep me from sin, and help me live by Your commandment of love. God of love, bring me back to You. Send Your Spirit to make me strong in faith and active in good works. May my acts of penance bring me Your forgiveness, open my heart to Your love, and prepare me for the coming feast of the Resurrection of Jesus.

Lord, during this Lenten Season, nourish me with Your Word of life and make me one with You in love and prayer. Fill my heart with Your love and keep me faithful to the Gospel of Christ. Give me the grace to rise above my human weakness. Give me new life by Your Sacraments, especially the Mass. Father, our source of life, I reach out with joy to grasp Your hand; let me walk more readily in Your ways. Guide me in Your gentle mercy, for left to myself I cannot do Your Will. Father of love, source of all blessings, help me to pass from my old life of sin to the new life of grace. Prepare me for the glory of Your Kingdom. I ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever. Amen.

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart, in choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.
